May Membership Meeting

Speech Therapy

Shelly Carver, from Accolade Home Care, will be speaking this month on "Speech Therapy." Shelly received her MS in Speech Language Pathology from Nova South Eastern University and her BA in Communication Disorders from McMurray University. Her specialty populations include Parkinson's, Alzheimer's/Dementia, CVA, traumatic brain injuries and esophageal cancer. She also develops treatment plans for receptive/expressive language disorders, aphasia, dysphagia, cognitive disorders, sensory integration, augmentative alternative communication, dysarthria and fluency. She is LSVT and Vita Stim certified and has been instrumental in both working with the local Parkinson's community and raising awareness in the local medical community.

Saturday, May 19 • 2:00-4:00 p.m.
Medical Office Building, St. David's Medical Center
3000 N. IH-35, 5th Floor Conference Room

Refreshments will follow. Members are encouraged to bring their favorite snack and/or cookies to share.
